1. The I love you tee by Baby Fabulous is just that fabulous. Their graphic toddler tees and baby onesies have ASL signs screenprinted on them. $20 at BabyFabulous.com.

2. Perfect for you and your kids, Earworms make learning languages easy and fun. Their CD's put the words and phrases you need not just on the tip of your tongue, but deep in your long-term memory with catchy melodies composed of rhythmic repetitions. You can learn a language while you are driving in your car, working out at the gym or having a relaxing bath. We LOVE Earworms Rapid Language CD's.

3. Make learning Spanish fun for your kids with the Kids Love Spanish! DVD series. Kids Love Spanish is a series of DVDs that teach children introductory Spanish. The series is designed for children ages 1-8+. Open up a whole new world for your child by introducing them to a new language with this series found at KidsLoveSpanish.com.

4. Your child will love getting Tessa & Tab magazine in the mail each month and you will love their excitement for reading. More than a magazine, Tessa & Tab Reading Club is a program for preschoolers that builds early reading skills. Arriving in the mail twice a month, the package includes useful parent tools and fun learning activities. subscribe for this excellent magazine and start your child on the path to love words early.

5. Il Cocco di Mamma signature tees are cuddly and cute. These soft cotton tees are printed with the most popular international sayings on them. Choose from Bella/Bello, Ciao!, Que Pasa?, C'est la Vie! and more. These worldly tees are also available in organic as well.

6. The adorable tees at Baby's Language can help translate those adorable coos and ahs into adult language for those not skilled in baby talk. Baby's Language combines colorful designs with word associations to create these cute tees. Each tee comes ready to give, wrapped in their clear box with ribbon.

7. Bitty Braille tees feature simple "kid-friendly" words set in Braille type in either sparkly faceted metal studs for the girls or simple metal studs for the boys. The translation is hand-embroidered underneath in a simple print or cursive. The concept of Bitty Braille is to introduce Braille to the young in addition to offering a unique, hip and trendy collection of tees. Customize with your trendy tots name for a special gift.
